

LOCAL BREVITIES.

Miss H. A. Shibley, of Belleville Avenue, will resume giving instruction to her classes in drawing and painting Oct. 3d. See advt.

There will be an auction sale by J. G. Ford at 74 Willow Street next Tuesday at 2 P. M. of all real estate and personal property of John Bauswein, deceased. Everything must go, which will be some one's opportunity.

Wm. Smith, colored, employed by Dr. John E. Wilson of Bloomfield, was arrested in Newark by Officer Foster for stealing a heavy coat from his employer. He was taken before Justice Post who committed him to the County Jail for trial.

Bloomfield Lodge, F. & A. M., opened its regular meetings last Tuesday. There was a good attendance and indications of a good deal of business for the lodge this fall and winter.

The Public Schools opened on Tuesday with the exception of the Primary on Liberty Street. The wings are being built on this building and it will be sufficiently enclosed to open school next Monday.

Melchor Schaeferberg, who died in Woodside on September 3d, was formerly a resident of Bloomfield and was well known here. He was 72 years old and was buried in Bloomfield last Tuesday.

Geo. Brooks of Bloomfield was arrested Wednesday night by constable Smith on the complaint of non-support by his wife. He was taken before Justice Post and agreed to pay his wife $4 per week and gave bonds.

Bloomfield wheelmen had a run to Orange Wednesday night. To-morrow they will go to Paterson. After dinner there they will return by way of Brookdale.

Rev. Geo. A. Paul and his wife arrived in Bloomfield late Saturday night from the steamer City of Rome. Mr. Paul occupied his pulpit morning and evening on Sunday, preaching to large congregations.

A Christian Endeavor Society of Newark had a picnic in the woods back of Alexander McNair's at James Street and the Canal on Tuesday.

Sunday afternoon the Bowery had its usual row. A German quarrelled with an Italian and was pushing him off a sidewalk when five or six more Italians took a hand in and drove him away. No arrests were made.

Wm. A. Rogers died Wednesday morning at his home, No. 49 State Street, in the 43d year of his age. His funeral took place from his late residence at 11 o'clock this morning, and interment was made in Greenwood Cemetery at the convenience of the family.

The fourth game between the Watessing Stars and Bloomfield base ball team will be played at Watessing to-morrow. The game will be called at 3.30 P. M. sharp.

If you want your carpets cleaned in the best manner, call upon or address Douglas, Empire Steam Carpet Cleaning Works, 7 and 9 Park Street, Montclair.

The Evangelical Union has arranged to hold two Union Prayer Meetings on Thursday evening, the 15th. One will be in the German Presbyterian Church and the other in the Watessing M. E. Church. It is expected that both meetings will be well attended.

Mrs. F. W. Pennington has resumed her instruction in music for the fall and winter months.

Edwin A. Rayner returned Tuesday from his trip East. He had an interview with Cleveland at Burrard's Bay, and it is claimed, has got the P. M. position in the palm of his hand if —

On last Saturday afternoon an accident happened to John Post, who was employed at the Fin factory painting the ceiling of the new factory which is being fitted up for making paper boxes. The scaffold rope broke and he fell backwards hurting his head very badly and also his left arm. He was taken to the Mountsinai Hospital where his wounds were dressed by the house surgeon.

A wagon containing Miss Eva Mesler, Mrs. John McLorain and child, of Newark, and Howard White of New York City, upset in Maple Street yesterday afternoon. They were on their way to Brookdale and stopped to call on Mr. F. Storms, 54 Maple Street. The driver turned too short and threw them all out. Miss Mesler had a slight contusion on the head. The others escaped unhurt.

Meat will be sold at reduced prices commencing Monday, Sept. 5th, at HOFFER'S.

Watessing and East Orange. Mr. Arthur Ellis and Joseph Law, Jr., left on Saturday, September 3d, to spend the following week at Ocean Grove.

Mr. Andrew Ellis, who has been visiting his sons in Youkes, returned home Thursday night.

The road on Myrtle Avenue is being repaired. Martha McCrory, the 11 years old daughter of Calvin McCrory of Watessing, met with a strange accident on Wednesday. She was pushing a boat swing at her home when it struck her, breaking her leg.

Wednesday afternoon Officer James Foster went to East Orange to dispose Richard J. Maxwell for non-payment of rent to the owner, Edw. McGinley. Foster had three parties with him and when they had counted their work were arrested on complaint of Maxwell for stealing $2.50 which was in a purse. When they got to the East Orange station Maxwell withdrew the complaint. On returning to Maxwell's home Foster found that some of the goods had been put back into place. Foster and his party went in to bring them out and Maxwell took a lamp at him with such force as to break all at pieces as it landed against the side of the room. Maxwell then made an assault upon Foster with his fists inflicting severe injuries. Maxwell was arrested on warrant issued by Justice Post and gave $200 bail at the East-Orange station.

Rainbow Circle. For some months the members of "St. Mark's Episcopal Society" of Glen Ridge have been planning and working for an extensive entertainment and bazaar to be held in the Glen Ridge Hall on the afternoons and evenings of October 18th, 19th and 20th. The booths will be arranged to form a rainbow, no pains or expense have been spared to make this scene beautiful and attractive. A fortune-teller and Punch and Judy will be there and many novel features are provided. A hot supper will be served and in order to make the event thoroughly enjoyable bright, good music will be provided.

Organ Concert, Church of the Sacred Heart.

The concert given last night in the new Church of the Sacred Heart was a success. William C. Carl presided at the organ. The selections were made to show the power of the organ and under his skillful hands the organ was displayed to great advantage. The selections were "Eurythmics," "Capriccio," "Aria," by Handel, "Funeral March by Gounod" and a "March Nuptiale," by F. de la Tombelle. Mr. Albert G. Thies, tenor, sang "Here Below," "Daddy" and "Come into the Garden, Maud." Miss Vera Rial sang "The Swiss boy" on the harp. Miss Susanne Leonard, contralto, sang "Promissio me" and Miss Grace Golden sang "Ave Maria" in E flat and "Killary." Mrs. G. W. Root and Miss Vera Rial performed a duet on the piano, and Miss Hattie Leonard gave "The Spinning Song," by Wagner, on the piano. Mr. Owen Westford, comedian, sang "The Future Mrs. O'Kell."

The church was well filled with an appropriate audience, there being 550 people there. The programme was a pleasing one and almost every number was successful. Miss Grace Golden and Mr. Owen Westford meeting with particular favor. Mr. Wm. T. Groves showed himself an apt manager in the arrangement of the programme and enlisting so many artists in the cause.

The organ, which is one of the largest in town, was built by L. C. Harrison of Orange Street, Bloomfield. The organ is in a gallery at the east end of the church. The dimensions of the new instrument are 21 feet front by 23 feet high. The organ is enclosed in a finished ash case. It has forty-five display pipes, ornamented to correspond with the interior decoration of the church. The total number of pipes is 1,554. It has twenty-five stops and three combination pedals.

The new instrument is built after the latest approved pattern, and has the Harrison Improved tubular pneumatic action, which does away with the old fashioned "trackers," while the touch of the keys is as light as that of a piano. The stops have been carefully voiced under the supervision of Mr. Harrison, and are all of large scale, particularly the double open diapason in the pedals, which is of what is known as "cathedral scale."

The church presented a very handsome appearance and the way the lights are arranged gives wonderful effect in bringing out the beauties of the church.

There will be a very tempting display of articles at the bazaar which will be held in the church next week, commencing on Monday and closing Saturday night.

Personal and Social.

Dr. James Bailey and wife of Harlem are visiting Justice Post.

The Misses Mattie and Eva Wilkes are spending two or three weeks with friends at Pittsfield, Mass.

Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Schell will sail for home on the steamship Augusta Victoria, on the 17th.

Miss Georgia Cameron who had a long visit Mrs. J. W. Foster's 302 Belleville Ave., returned to her home in Brooklyn yesterday afternoon.

Miss Christine M. Lilley, daughter of R. Lilley of Ann Arbor, Mich., who has been visiting with her aunt, Mrs. Eliza C. Lilley, has returned home.

Mr. and Mrs. Allison Dodd will move into their house on Beach street next week.

Mrs. James Van Deusen of Wempe, New York is visiting at the house of Mrs. Wm. Cadmus on Belleville Avenue.

Mrs. Young, mother of Wm. Young of Henry street, has returned from Birmingham, N. Y., where she has been among old friends.

Jos. Evenden who has been sick for two weeks is recovering and was out for the first time yesterday.

Miss H. C. Camp, who is the head of the Training School for Nurses at the Brooklyn Hospital, has been visiting her brother P. T. Camp, on Broad street, she returned to Brooklyn Wednesday.

Dr. Knox of the German Theological Seminary, has returned from Europe.

Miss Helen of 53 Benson Street has been quite ill but is now convalescing.

Miss Hannah M. Ely, of Dover, N. J., is visiting with her friend Miss Zilla Calhoun of Montgomery Street.

Fred Storius and his brother-in-law, Wm. Crisp, went to the Catskills last week and had an elegant time.

The Glen Ridge Lawn Tennis Club will have a fancy dress party and promenade on its tennis courts next Tuesday night. Should the weather be fair it will be a very enjoyable affair.

Of the sojourners in Bloomfield during the past season it is doubtful if any went away with more pleasant recollections of many friends made, or better impressions with the town than the family of Mr. Geo. Colson, of the firm of Colson Bros., of New York City. During the months of July and August they occupied the residence of Mr. Fred Davis on Orchard Street. Mrs. Colson's mother and sister came on from Philadelphia to join them in their vacation and they soon endeared themselves to all who had the pleasure of their acquaintance. Mr. Colson's business called him to the West, after which it is hoped they will make a permanent residence at Bloomfield.

Broadway Theatre.

"Wang" goes merrily on at the Broadway Theatre, New York City. Its bright, tuneful music, contagious fun, pretty girls, gorgeous scenery, brilliant costumes, and numerous amusing features, continue to attract large audiences, and De Wolf Hopper, assisted by his merry cohorts seem tireless in their efforts to please, as a result their performances retain all or the attributes of excellence that characterized the initial presentations of the opera last season, and its wonderful popularity among all classes of theatre-goers, conclusively indicates a continuance of its unparalleled success. The airy ballet has broken all records in the annals of light comic-opera in this country, and the reasons for this remarkable state of affairs are not difficult to locate. The inimitable comedy of Hopper has never had such a congenial vehicle as that afforded him in the brilliant and witty lines furnished him by the author, and no light music has been ever given in the Metropolis, by better numbers of solo, chorus and orchestra. Then too, Mr. Hopper is supported by a troupe of light comic-opera favorites, who with the comedian, are surrounded by an admirably drilled chorus composed principally of excellent singers and pretty girls.

Grand Army Reunion.

EXTENSIVE PREPARATIONS MADE FOR THEM AT WASHINGTON.

Prominent among the attractive features during the National Encampments of the Grand Army of the Republic in the past have been the reunions of the survivors of the old Army organizations. While these have been largely attended, it is now known that all previous records will be eclipsed at the Washington encampment. A beautiful and convenient site has been selected, on which large tents will be pitched to accommodate all the old organizations. These reunions will not be for one day alone, but will be continued during the whole of encampment week and day and night, for the whole time, "Grand Army Place" (south of the White House in the centre of the city) will be made merry with campfires and other attractive exercises.

The sub-committee of the local Committee on Reunions, having in charge the Fifth Corps, desire that each and every comrade who has served therein and purposes to attend the encampment, shall at once report his name, company and regiment to A. E. Jandison, chairman of the Committee on Reunion of the Fifth Corps. It is desired that as nearly as possible all the survivors of all those soldiers who fought under the leadership of Porter on the Peninsula, Butterfield at Fredericksburg, Meade at Chancellorsville, Sykes at Gettysburg and Warren on the fields of the Wilderness and Spottsylvania, Petersburg and Five Forks, should once more come together.

The Commander-in-Chief has decided, for several reasons, that the parade shall be in double column, the principal reason being that hundreds of comrades have heretofore refrained from joining in the march on account of its great length, the fatigue of waiting in side streets before moving, and the lateness of the hour when the last of the column would pass the reviewing stand. The march on this occasion will be over perfectly level streets, paved with asphalt, and the double column formation will reduce the length of the parade and the time of waiting so as to make it a pleasure rather than a tax to every comrade who participates in it.

Comrades of Wm. S. Elston Post G. A. R. can obtain rooms at Post headquarters by immediately applying to S. G. Hayter, Post Quartermaster. Every comrade should embrace the opportunity. It is not at all likely that the G. A. R. will have another review in Washington. FAH in comrades.

LIST OF UNCLAIMED LETTERS

Remaining in the Post Office at Bloomfield, N. J., for the week ending, Sept. 2, 1892. Arnold, Miss Katie. McElver, Michael J. Bonie, N. William. Moore, Mrs. Ronella. Bryant, Mr. R. H. Henry. Flanagan, Miss K. Moore, Mrs. Fannie A. Flanagan, Miss Julia. Naylor, Mrs. Francis. Lazard, Mr. Henry Emma. Madison, Mrs. Wm. Ripper, Geo. A. T. E. HAYES, Postmaster.

When Man Was in Darkness. Man was once in comparative darkness when the sun went down. His primitive habitation was a place of rest, unlighted by the oil which prolongs the hours of labor, doubles the speed of progress and shortens life. After ages of groping about—feeling for the knob on the wrong side of the door, so to speak—he stumbled on the fact that fire would make a light. Looking around for something to hold the fat skills of animals were found useful, and so the antediluvian discovered the principle of portable illumination.

From skulls and seashells light proceeded to vessels of burned clay, dish-like, with wicks of flax, rushes and other fibers. Many of these primitive lamps have been found in the ruins of Pompeii, Herculaneum and elsewhere, but the invention of the lamp is supposed to belong to the ancient East Indians. Until the beginning of the Nineteenth century there was little improvement in lamps. The candle kept humanity in semidarkness, which was relieved by the introduction of mineral oil, which stimulated invention and brought about the lamp of beauty and utility of the present.—Mechanical News.

The Size of the Gulf Stream. People think the Mississippi a great stream, and it is so in truth, so far as land rivers go, but great as it is it would require 2,000 such rivers to make one Gulf Stream. The great ocean river is an irresistible flood of water, running all the time, winter and summer, and year after year. It is as difficult for the mind to grasp its immensity as it is to realize the distance of the nearest stars. At its narrowest part in the Straits of Florida it is thirty-nine miles wide, has an average depth of 2,000 feet and a velocity at the axis—the point of fastest flow—of from three to more than five miles per hour. To say that the volume in one hour's flow past Cape Florida is 90,000,000,000 tons in weight does not convey much to the mind. If we could evaporate this one hour's flow of water and distribute the remaining salt to the inhabitants of the United States, every man, woman and child would receive nearly sixty pounds.—Detroit Free Press.

Oscar Wilde's Little Joke. Oscar Wilde does not appear to have lost his nimble wit. At a dinner party in London the other night the coffee had been sipped and the men were becoming weary of the tardiness in bringing out the cigarettes. Suddenly some one remarked that a lamp was smoking. "Happy lamp!" exclaimed Oscar, and the hostess took the hint.—Exchange.

Welcome to Autumn.

BY C. H. F. Welcome, oh! welcome, season of harvesting: Welcome to woodland and pasture and meadow: Welcome, thy breezes and bird-songs of joyance: Welcome thy sheen and fast-fitting shadow: Welcome to tree-top and castle and arbor: Welcome to brooklet and river and fountain: Welcome to sea-shore and lasset and harbor: Welcome to valley and hillside and mountain: Hope of the laborer! joy of the diligent! Welcome, thrice welcome, to home with thy treasure: Season of beauty, of bright hope and blessing: Welcome to earth with thy deep-dawning pleasure.

Welcome, glad welcome, season all beautiful! Welcome, oh! welcome, time of the beautiful! Minding us ever of faith's bright elysian: Drawings of holiness, rest of the dutiful. Welcome thy precept, thy life-giving lesson: Welcome, thy whispered, sweet soothing of sadness: Welcome, thy earth-beams of Eden-like blessing: Day-dreams of hope, and sweet, tear-bedewed gladness. Welcome, sweet welcome, thy dirges' low music: Requiem soft of the hours that are squandered. Teach us, oh! teach us thy song so enchanting: Lead us, oh! lead us to whence we have wandered. BLOOMFIELD, N. J., SEPT. 5th, 1892.
